A TITAN IS YOU!

BEING A TITAN IS AN INTANGIBLE MIRACLE
THAT SWELLS YOUR HEART WITH PRIDE;
AN ELECTRIC SCHOOL SPIRIT THAT CHARGES
YOUR TEAM TO VICTORY, YOUR SCHOOL TO FAME.
TO BE A TITAN MEANS HAPPINESS, EXCITEMENT,
INVOLVEMENT,
A BLUR OF FRIENDSHIPS,
A NEVER-ENDING MEMORY.
TO BE A TITAN IS TO BE YOUNG AND ALIVE,
AN EXPERIENCE TO BE LIVED TO THE FULLEST.
IT IS A SMILE, A TEAR, A DREAM, A REALITY.
A TITAN IS YOU!

N 1969 TITAN 196

For his untiring efforts in improving the academic skills of his students.

For his sympathetic interest in the personal welfare of his students.

For his wisdom and fair play not found in textbooks or on the basketball court alone, but in his strength of purpose, unity, and co-operation,

We, the 1969 Titan Staff, in behalf of all his students, past and present, do dedicate this 1969 volume to Mr. Pat Price.

Students Look to Administration for Leadership

School policies are formulated and carried out by the Midwest City School Board and Superintendent Oscar V. Rose. They have been the guiding light in making Carl Albert Junior Senior High School the progressive and academically sound school that it is.

Mr. Rose has very capably served as Superintendent of Schools in Midwest City since the inception of the school system. Assisting Mr. Rose in the administration office are Mr. J. E. Sutton, deputy superintendent; Mr. Herschel Melton, director of special services; Dr. William Anderson, director of curriculum; Dr. Vernon McAllister, assistant superintendent in charge of personnel; and Mr. William Austen, director of elementary curriculum.

Board members are Mr. Jack Boardman, president; Dr. Anthony Thomas, vice-president; Mr. W. P. Butcher, clerk; Mr. T. D. Clifton, member; and Mr. I. T. Chowning, member.

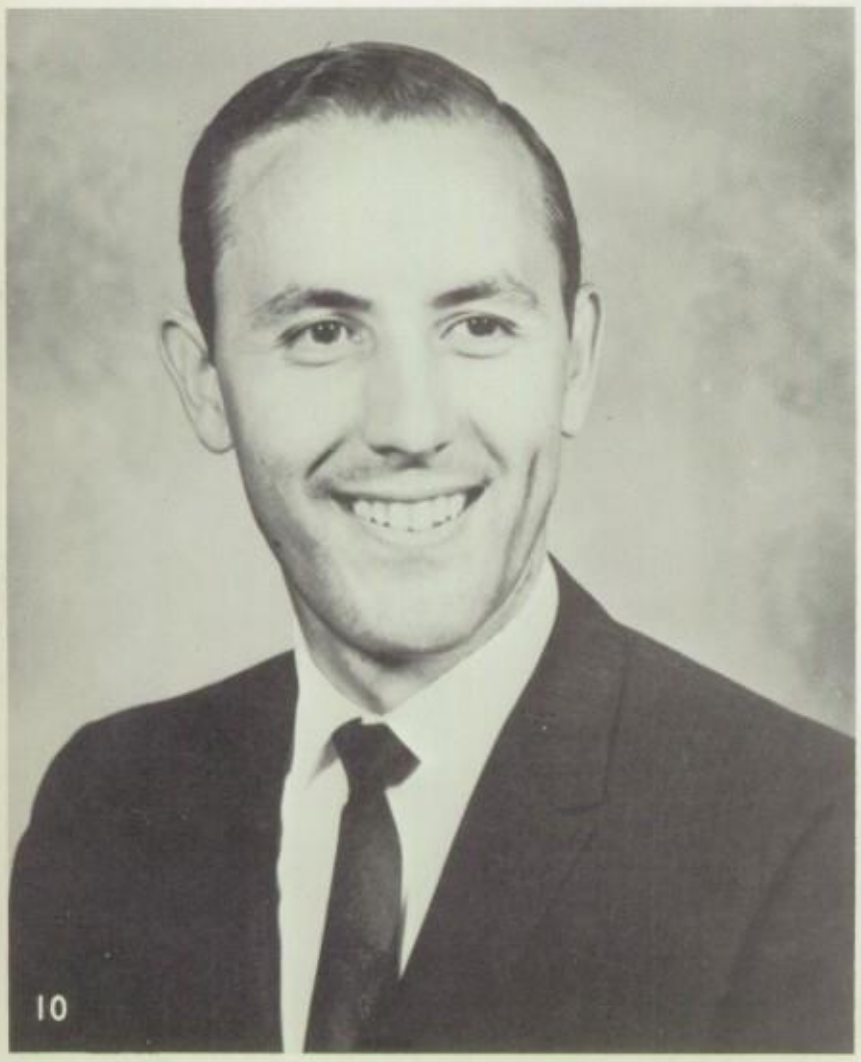
Principals and Vice-Principals Lead Carl Albert

In his three short years as principal of Carl Albert Senior High, Mr. Lewis Eubanks has become the respected leader and friend to many senior high students. He provides a valuable link between students and faculty concerning all decisions involving school policies. His numerous duties include the curriculum, scheduling, and finances.

Mr. Bill Shackelford, senior high vice principal, assists Mr. Eubanks with keeping attendance and general supervision of the senior high.

MR. LEWIS EUBANKS, Senior High Principal



MR. BILL SHACKELFORD, Senior High Vice-Principal

Junior-Senior High Forward in 1968-1969.

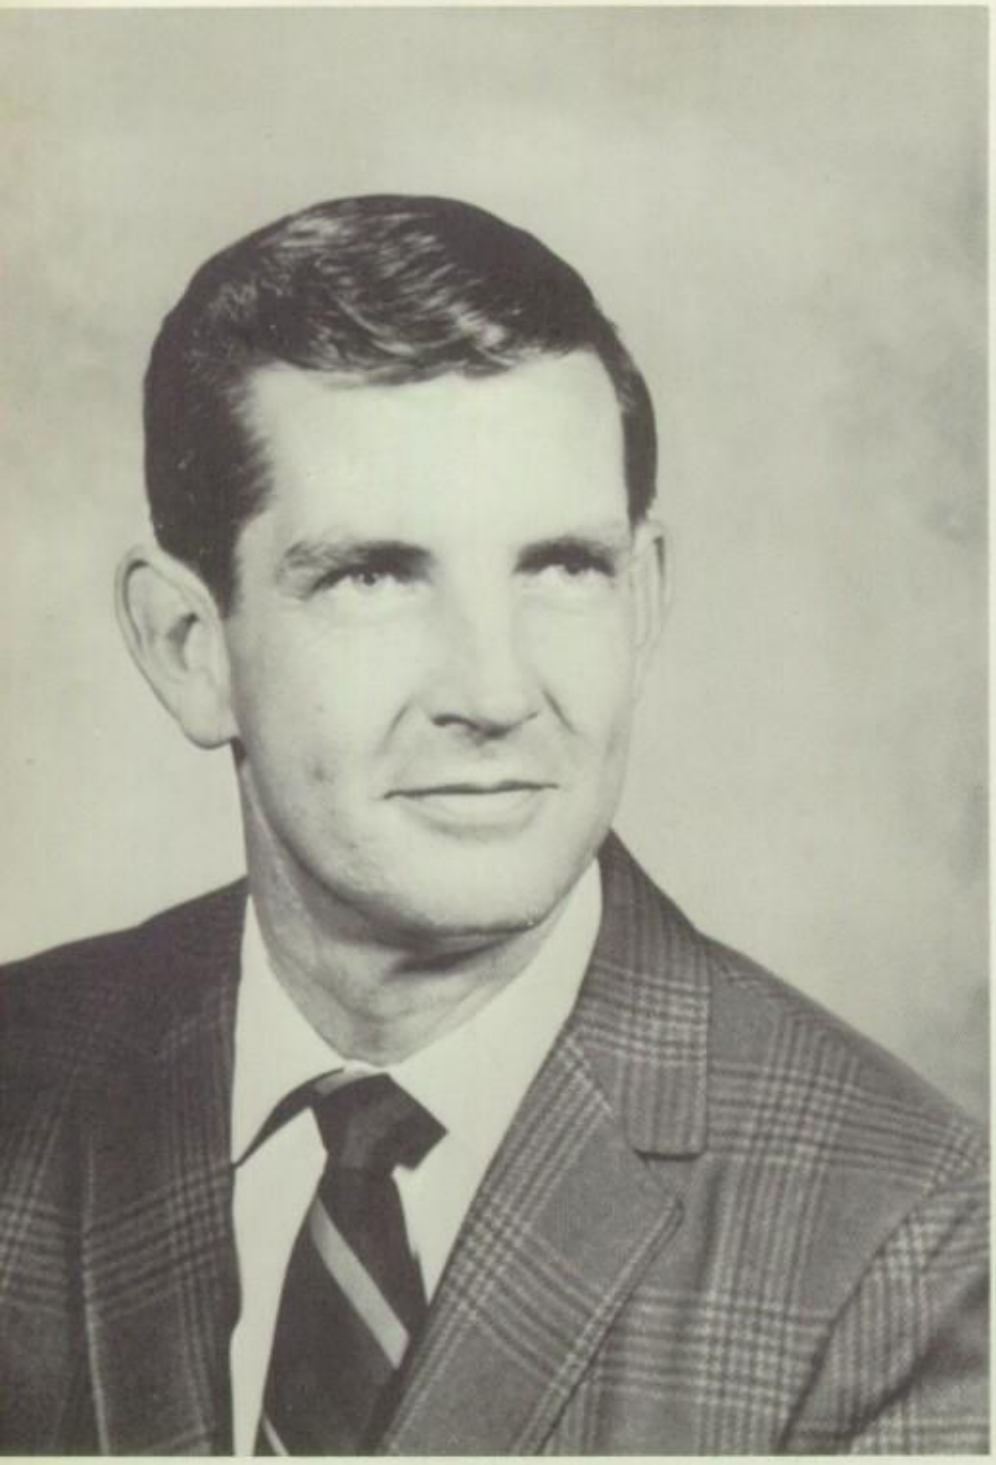
MR. CARL CURTIS, Junior High Principal

Since the very beginning of Carl Albert Junior High School, students have found a trusted friend and example in its principal, Mr. Carl Curtis. Among his many duties, the most prominent are supervising the faculty and aiding junior high students in preparing for senior high school.

The new vice-principal, Mr. Cecil Ned, assists Mr. Curtis with such duties as attendance keeping and general supervision.

MR. CECIL NED, Junior High Vice-Principal

Counseling Program Benefits Students



MR. JOE JOHNSON, Boys' Counselor

Being excellent listeners and having genuine interests in the welfare of students are two characteristics of Mrs. Gerry Wade and Mr. Joe Johnson, counselors. Every day brings new student problems into their offices, whether it be as small as supplying a band-aid for a hurt finger or as big as achieving an understanding among students, teachers, and parents.

Although educational and vocational planning is the primary function of the counselors' offices, Mrs. Wade and Mr. Johnson enroll new students, administer skill and achievement tests, and correlate many extra-curricular activities.

Band Earns Prestige

OFFICERS

President—Bob Scott, Vice President—Mike Martin, Secretary—Mary Mitchell, Treasurer—Debbie Coburn, Social Chairman—Glinda Shadoan, and J. D. Richardson—Chaplain.

The Senior High Titan Band is an active representative of our school. Throughout the second semester, the band attends music contests and concerts. The Senior High Band is the host of a Christmas concert and an annual spring concert. Under the direction of Mr. Dale Jones the Senior High Band has become a great organization.

Although the band functions as a unit in most activities, the individual members participate in other musical events. The solo and ensemble contestants have proved to be excellent musicians and have won honors at the music contests that they have attended.

Marching Titans

Throughout the first semester, the Senior High Titan Marching Band takes part in many activities. At home athletic events, enthusiasm is engendered by its spirited music and well-presented half-time shows. The band shows true Titan spirit by marching in parades to represent their school. Under the excellent direction of Mr. Dale Jones, the band attended the state marching contest at Capitol Hill.

Junior High Band

This year the Junior High Titan Band joined the Senior High Band in the performance of a Christmas concert and a Spring concert. The Junior Titan Band attended the district music contest at Oklahoma City University. The band played during all home football games. The members of the band devoted their time in order to practice.

The Jr. High Band performs at pep assemblies.

The Carl Albert chapter of Future Homemakers of America has adopted one of the national projects as their theme for this year—"Citizenship Challenges You." In connection with this theme the F.H.A. has promoted the all school campaign—"Keep Carl Albert Beautiful." Along with their many activities, the Future Homemakers are visiting Nursing Homes. This year the girls have Secret Grandmothers whom they are honoring on special occasions throughout the year. The girls made their Secret Grandmothers candydishes for Christmas and sent them Mother's Day cards on Mother's Day. The F.H.A. sponsored a Granny Day this year in honor of their Secret Grandmothers. The money from this day's festivities was used for the Christmas projects at the Nursing homes in our community.

Honor Society Has New Sponsor

The Carl Albert Chapter of the National Honor Society strengthens Carl Albert by recognizing and encouraging those students who have achieved excellence in all areas of school life.

The most important project of the Honor Society is the induction of new members. To be eligible, a student must have a three point grade average and be rated highly in character, leadership, and service. Fifteen per cent of the Seniors, ten per cent of the Juniors, and five per cent of the Sophomores were accepted.

Danny Randall and Larry Zerby attended the State Convention at Tulsa.

Sponsor for the Honor Society was Mrs. Irma Evans. Officers were: President, Danny Randall; Vice President, Tracy Benton; Secretary, Pam Allison; and Treasurer, Darlene Lueb.

Light, the Symbol of Truth

The Carl Albert National Junior Honor Society promotes the achievement of excellence in the school life of each student. New members were inducted in the spring. Each member must maintain a three point grade average and be highly rated in character, service, leadership, and citizenship to be eligible for membership in the organization. Only fifteen per cent of the ninth graders, ten per cent of the eighth graders, and five per cent of the seventh graders were accepted.

Mrs. Jackie Pickett, sponsor, led the Society through induction and the other activities of the Honor Society.

Officers are: President—Randy Edwards, Vice President—Robert Epps, and Treasurer—Tony Wood. Not pictured is Pat Sullivan, Secretary.

Pep Club Signs Boost Spirit

Backing the Junior High Titan teams is the Junior High Pep Club. Promoting spirit, enthusiasm, and school pride is their goal. To accomplish this they organize pep assemblies, sponsor dances, and attend all home games. One example of a spirit booster was the "Titanmobile" which was used in the Homecoming assembly.

Elected Pep Club Beau for 1968-1969 was Steve Johnson, Freshman.

Leading the Pep Club were the cheerleaders, who won first and second place awards at the annual summer and winter clinics held in Norman, Oklahoma.

Kathe Eastham, Dennis Beaver, and Rita Owen sell candles to furnish money for the Youth for Christ's trip to the Children's Home.

The Youth for Christ Club has made tremendous progress this year. This "little club" has been given the slogan "Smallest Club—Biggest Purpose." With the help of Mr. Joe Powers, sponsor, the Youth for Christ had many fund raising projects. A few of these were a bake sale, a candle sale, and a paper drive. The funds from these projects were used to provide a needy family a happy Thanksgiving. The Youth for Christ also visited a Children's Home during Christmas and Easter.

Student Council Helps to Promote Theme "You Are A Titan"

The many activities of the Student Council this year included making the morning announcements and devotionals, caring for the student store and caring for the weekly calendar in the lobby.

Two important activities sponsored by the Council were Howdy Week and Homecoming. Howdy Week included an assembly to get everyone to really show their school spirit. Homecoming was highlighted by an assembly, a parade, and a victory dance following the football game.

Another activity, the Miss Titan Pageant, was made possible by the efforts of the Student Council.

Jr. High Student Council Sells Magazines

The Junior High Student Council is an active group which consists of a representative from every homeroom in the Junior High. With the help of the junior high teachers and students, the Council sponsored a magazine drive. The money from the magazine drive provided money for Y-Baseball, gymnastics and the Miss Junior Titan Pageant.

Titan Talk Keeps CAHS Students Well-Informed

EDITOR: Tommie Shelburne

The Titan Talk, the voice of Carl Albert Jr.-Sr. High School, expressed the accomplishments, the goals, the ideas, and the good times of students while keeping them well informed of coming events. The staff, under the direction of Mrs. Syebelle Butler, is composed of students who gather news, write copy, take pictures, proofread copy, and type. Working on the school paper teaches the students the fundamentals of good journalism.

The paper took first place in the Columbia Scholastic Press Association and has membership in CSPA, NSPA, OIPA, OCIPA, and Quill and Scroll. The officers of Quill and Scroll are Sherry Butts—President, Tommie Shelburne—Vice President, and Pam Allison—Secretary and Treasurer.

Staff members attended an OIPA conference at Oklahoma University and visited the Oklahoma Press Club in Oklahoma City for a luncheon.

Senior High Choir Sings For State Legislators

In the second year under Mrs. Norma Looper's direction, the Carl Albert Senior High Choir has upheld its superior state-wide reputation and added more honors to its extensive list. The Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors composing this group are their school's representatives in vocal music, carrying the Titan tradition of excellence to the many contests and performances which are a part of the choir's schedule.

One of the special honors awarded this year's choir was the opportunity to perform for the 1969 Oklahoma State Legislative session.

Choir Inspires Through Song

Carl Albert's Junior High Chorus has the honor of carrying the name of C.A.J.H.S. to all musical competitions and of fulfilling our established music tradition. In this endeavor they proved to be highly successful. This year the chorus has performed often and received much acclaim. Under the direction of Mrs. Norma Looper, individual soloists have attained countless honors. Many students learned from their experiences with the chorus, and the chorus has truly benefited from their efforts.

S.S.A. Strikes Note of Joy

Under the direction of Mrs. Looper, the newly organized S. S. A. group worked to represent and entertain Carl Albert. Whether in assemblies for holidays or spiritual appreciation, the musical department symbolized the influence of music over the student body. They worked especially hard preparing special numbers for the Christmas assembly and district contest and the department's annual spring concert.

Throughout this 68-69 school year at Carl Albert Junior-Senior High, the yearbook staff has worked diligently on the '69 Titan yearbook. But along with this hard work to get the yearbook out before the deadline, the staff has also attended the annual OIPA conference at Oklahoma University in Norman and a press luncheon at the Sheraton Hotel in Oklahoma City.

This year, Rita Gray was chosen yearbook princess, to represent the '68-'69 yearbook staff in the annual Miss Titan Pageant.

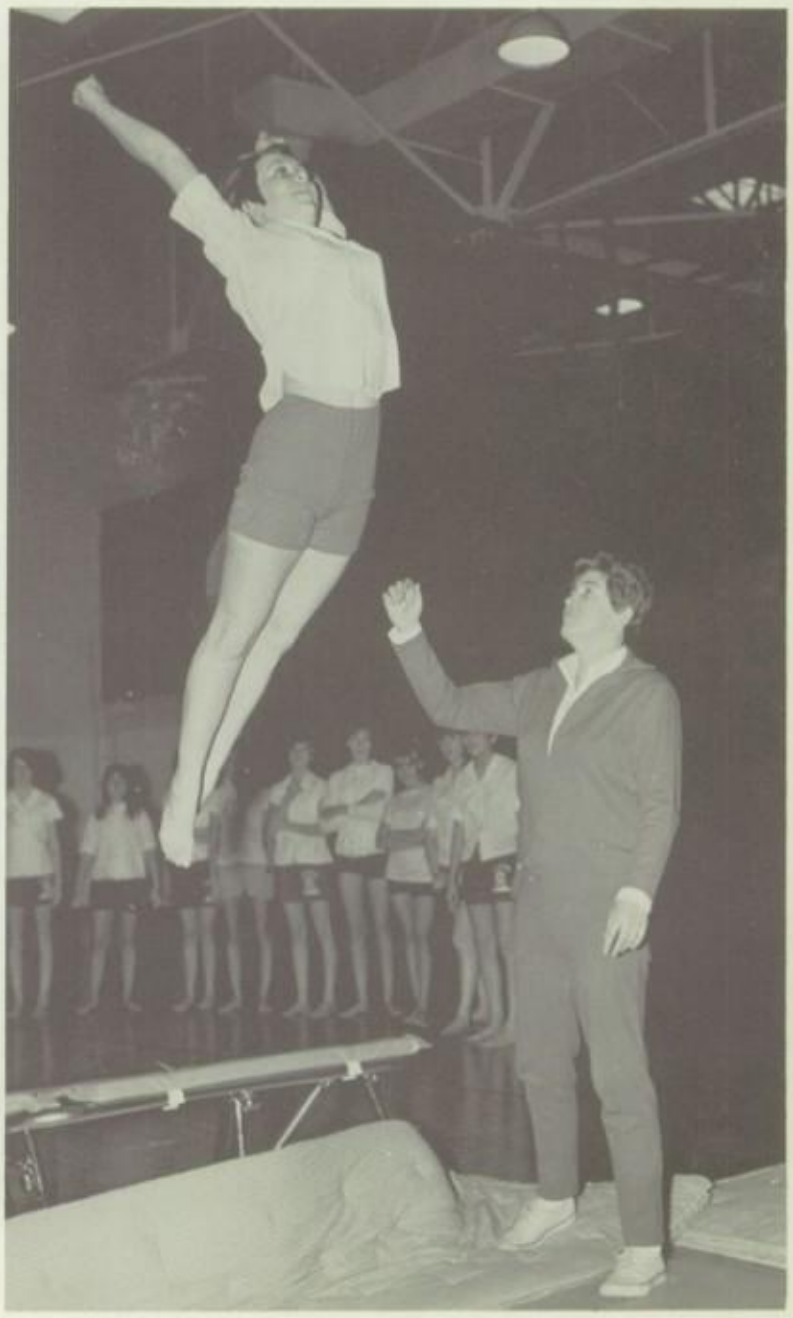
Tumbling plays an important role in the lives of many girls at Carl Albert Jr.-Sr. High. It builds confidence and ability to perform under pressure in contests.

This year the tumbling club received a mini-tramp to add to their other equipment. The tumblers took several routines to various tumbling meets during the spring semester.



Miss Rose Hennessey instructs Vicky Pettett on the new mini-tramp.

"A blur of friendships,
A never-ending memory."

HONORS

A vibrant personality and a genuine interest in everyone associated with Carl Albert High School are the chief attributes of Miss Pam Allison, 1969 Miss Titan. As Miss Titan, she holds the honor of being Carl Albert's ideal girl. Pam won this honor in competition with twenty Junior and Senior girls.

The brown-haired Senior girl has combined mental poise with her beauty. She has a 3.4 grade average, is a member of the National Honor Society, and was selected as a class favorite in both her Junior and Senior years.

Pam is a member of the Pep Club and served as head cheerleader during the 1968-1969 school year. She has also served as president of the Foreign Language Club and as a Senior class executive board member. Pam is a member of the 1969 Titan Staff, Quill and Scroll, Tumbling Club, Student Council, the tennis team, and was selected to the Who's Who.

Pam has contributed much to Carl Albert Senior High School besides her gracefulness; she has given much of her time to the advancement of Carl Albert's prestige through her working interest in school activities.

Gail Bennett Crowned at Homecoming Festivities

Captain, Sammy Malone, crowns Gail Bennett, Football Princess.

Climaxing the 1968 Jr. High Homecoming week was the game with Nicoma Park and the coronation of the new football princess, Gail Bennett.

The Homecoming Court included seventh grade attendant, Gayla Stoddard, Eighth grade attendant, Rosanne Gentry, and freshman attendants, Rocky Maynor and Donna West.

Attendants, Gayla Stoddard, Rosanne Gentry, Rocky Maynor, Gail Bennett, and Donna West are presented at Homecoming Assembly.

Titan Power '68

A 26-7 defeat of Crooked Oak topped the 1968 Homecoming week at Carl Albert High. Hard work by the team and all classes contributed to the spirit and enthusiasm.

The Junior class defeated the Senior class in its attempt to retain the spirit stick for their activities during Homecoming week.

PAM ALLISON—Football Princess

Football Princess Pam Allison was escorted by Tracy Benton. Her attendants were Debbie Coburn, Gail Weldon, and Jean Shepherd.

Joe Barnes was the speaker at the assembly and grand marshall for the parade.

The FHA won first place honors in the parade with their entry, "Recipe for a Titan Victory."

"An electric school spirit that charges your team to victory, your school to fame."

Seventh Grade

10 Seniors Named to Carl Albert Who's Who

For the first time in the history of Carl Albert Senior High, ten Seniors were chosen for Who's Who. Students must maintain a three point grade average to be eligible for Who's Who. The top ten were chosen by faculty vote on the basis of character, attitude in class, involvement, leadership, school spirit, and citizenship.
